Numb. 4035.

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, September 29. 1714.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 1.

Stockholm, September 15.

WE have heard nothing for some Days past of the Enemy's Fleet, and since our Army is well encreased by the new Regiments which have been sent for out of divers Provinces, we are not without Hopes that the Russians will not be able to make any further Invasion. There runs a Report that a Fight hath happened between the Enemy and the Body of our Forces under Major-General Aremberg, wherein we had the better, but that in a 2d Action we suffered some Loss. But as this News was spread without any certain Authority, there is not much Credit can be yet given to it. The Report concerning the King's immediate Return to his Kingdom encreases, and assoon as we have certain Advice of it General Meyerfeild who is come hither from Carelscroon will go to Pomerania to Command there.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Reitzen in Poland, Sept. 21. The Marshal of the Court went hence on Sunday last in the Evening to prepare all things for the Reception of the King, who set forward Yesterday, and was followed to Day by the Lords. 'Tis confirmed from Chocim, that the Ambassador of Poland had on the 23d past Audience of Leave of the Grand Signior, and that he is on his Journey hither with the Treaty of Peace renewed between the Porte and our King. 'Tis added, that the Grand Signior has expressly forbid the Cham of Tartary to stir in any Manner in Favour of the Cossacks. The Turks have also amicably finished with the Russians the Regulation of the Limits of the Frontiers on both Sides. We hear from Volhinia that the Nobility are assembled, and have made a Review of 7000 Men; but 'tis hoped the Heats will be suddenly calmed in that Country, the King having ordered all the Saxon Infantry and part of the Cavalry to quit Poland.

From the Hag. Cour. Oct. 1. and Leid. Gaz. Oct. 2.

Hambourg, Sept. 25. On the 22d an Express from Constantinople to the Heer Zurzrok who came thence the 27th past, arrived here with Advice that the Baron Grotenhuyzen had received a favourable Answer from that Court, and that the King of Sweden would depart from Demotica for his own Country on the 2d or 3d of October, and would take his Way by Tergovista and Burgarestic, where his own Troops from Bender would meet him. There are Advices from Finland, that the Russians have left Aland. The Swedes here have received Advice that their Fleet is arrived at the Island of Bornholm, where it has been reinforced with 12 Men of War from Carelscroon and Carelshaven, and proposes to hinder the Danish Fleet from joyning that of the Czar; and that the Army which is encamped 9 Leagues from Stockholm is in a Condition to stand the Muscovites; all which, together with the Assurance the Swedes are in that their King will speedily return, hath so encouraged that Nation that they have not sent the Muscovite Prisoners to the Czar as had been resolved, to make Proposals of Peace. The Czar is gone to Petersbourg, but is expected back in Finland very suddenly to execute some Designs against Sweden.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 2.

Hambourg, Sept. 28. A great Magazine of Corn is erecting at Bremen. The Reports concerning the King of Sweden are positive that he will set out from Demotica the 1st of October, and take his Way by Cronstad towards Hungary. We have News here that the Russians have landed upon Wesher Boken, but what their Designs are is not spoken. We hear that the King of Poland is arrived at Warsaw.

Ashburton, Sept. 22. Altho' the Expressions of Joy at the time of Proclaiming our Gracious Sovereign King George were equal to those of his Majesty's Loyal Subjects in other Places, yet we kept a Reserve for the Occasion of celebrating his Majesty's happy Arrival in his Kingdom; the News whereof being arrived, our Townsmen (whose chief Business is the Serge Manufacture) knew not how enough to express the Joy which the Sence of the Succession of a Prince whose Royal Virtues give them Assurance of perpetuating to them the Enjoyment of Liberty and Happiness, which the melancholly Apprehensions upon the Death of our late Gracious Queen had made us fear the Loss of, and therefore gave a loose to their Delight, which in the Evening was most agreeably fed by the presentation of a Machine which the Post-Master surprized us with. It was a large oblong Square, whose four Faces were of oyled Cloth adorned with Paintings and illuminated by a vast many Candles placed within Side; each Face had an oval Compartment of Lawrel, with Roses at the Corners painted, and in the Middle of each four Verses in Honour to King George. The whole rising Pyramidal had a large Royal Crown at Top which was also illuminated, and being elevated to a proper heighth was shewn with Advantage, and made a most agreeable Sight. The Shouts and Acclamations of the People, and the Expressions of Joy and Satisfaction were as compleat as can be thought, and the usual Signs of it appeared as late in the Night as was proper.
